

The Dancing Class

- Zoe Look, Sam. There are lots of classes at the Community Centre. Come to the dance with me. It'll be fun.
- Sam No thanks, Zoe. I don't like dancing.
- Narrator At the dancing class, Zoe danced with Jenny.
- Jenny Where's your husband, Zoe? We need more men.
- Zoe Sam doesn't like dancing.
- Jenny Don't tell him it's dance. Tell him it's a fitness class.
- Narrator The next week, Zoe tried again.
- Zoe Come to a fitness class, Sam. You will get fit.
- Sam OK. I really need to get fit.
- Narrator At the class they did some warm-up exercises. The music was fast.
- Sam (puffing) That's good exercise.
- Narrator Then they did some Bollywood dance. The music was faster.
- Sam (puffing) That's good exercise.
- Narrator The teacher showed the class how to do the samba. Sam and Zoe danced the samba together
- Sam Zoe, this fitness class is a bit like dancing. But it's fun. I'm happy I came
- Zoe Me too!
